

(BY AUTHORITY.)
Laws of New Jersey.

CHAPTER CCCCXII.

Supplement to the act relative to the publication of the public laws.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the New Jersey State Republican, a newspaper published in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union, is hereby authorized to publish all laws and notices now authorized to be published by any newspaper published in said county under any law of this state.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 21, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXIII.

A further Supplement to an act entitled "An act against usury," approved April tenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That no bond or mortgage for the payment of money heretofore made or issued, or that may hereafter be made or issued, by any corporation created by or under the laws of this state, shall be held, deemed, or considered valid, or liable to any deduction from the amount that may become due thereon, because such bond or mortgage may have been made in said, sold, assigned or otherwise disposed of by such corporation below the par value thereof; provided, such bond or mortgage shall be valid on its face; and provided also, that this act shall not apply to any suit now pending.

2. And be it enacted, that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 24, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXIV.

A further supplement to an act entitled "An act respecting bridges," approved April tenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever it shall be necessary to repair, or rebuild any bridge or viaduct in this state; over any navigable river or water, the public authorities, corporation or persons so repairing or rebuilding such bridge or viaduct, shall not be liable for damages occasioned by obstructing or stopping navigation thereby; provided, the said repairs or rebuilding be done between the first day of January and first day of March; and provided further, that said repairs or rebuilding be prosecuted with all practicable dispatch; and provided further, that notice of such intended repairs, or rebuilding, be given at least three weeks prior to commencing the same, by publishing a notice thereof in some newspaper circulating in the county adjacent to such bridge or viaduct; provided however, that nothing in this act contained shall apply to the county of Monmouth.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 24, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXV.

An act to regulate the manufacture and sale of fertilizers.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That every commercial fertilizer which all be offered for sale in this state shall be accompanied by an analysis, stating the per centage therein of ammonia or its equivalent of nitrogen of potash, in any form or combination, soluble in distilled water; and of phosphoric acid in any form or combination; the portion of phosphoric acid soluble in distilled water; that portion soluble in a neutral solution of citrate of ammonia at a temperature not exceeding one hundred degrees Fahrenheit; and that portion of phosphoric acid not soluble in either of the above named fluids, shall each be determined separately; and the material from which the phosphate fertilizer is made shall also be stated.

2. A table statement of such analysis shall accompany all packages or lots of over one hundred pounds, sold offered, or exposed for sale.

3. And be it enacted, That the chemist of the state board of agriculture shall be the inspector of fertilizers; it shall be his duty to analyze one or more samples of every kind of commercial fertilizers coming within the provisions of this act, which may be offered for sale within this state, and of which he shall be informed.

4. And be it enacted, That manufacturers, dealers, and all persons interested may obtain an analysis by notifying the chemist of the state board of agriculture, upon which notification he shall be authorized to analyze at his discretion, samples selected by himself, and to furnish certified copies of such analysis to the persons on whose application they were made; and it shall also be his duty to report all such analysis to the state board of agriculture.

5. And be it enacted, That any person selling, offering or exposing for sale any commercial fertilizer without the analysis required by the first section of this act, or with an analysis stating that said fertilizer contains a larger per centage of any one or more of the constituents mentioned in said section than is contained therein, shall forfeit fifty dollars for the first offence, and one hundred dollars for each subsequent offence.

Approved March 24, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXVI.

A supplement to an act entitled "An act for the government and regulation of the State Prison," approved March twenty-sixth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the inspectors of the state prison shall be entitled to receive the annual salaries and pay heretofore mentioned, and no other compensation whatever; that is to say, each of the acting inspectors at the rate of three hundred dollars per annum; and each of the other members of the board of inspectors, at the rate of three hundred dollars per annum; all of which salaries shall be paid in the manner now provided by the laws of this state.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be retrospective so far as relates to those inspectors of the state prison, who have received no compensation for their services, since the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Approved March 24, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXVII.

A supplement to an act entitled "An act for the government and regulation of the State Prison," approved March twenty-sixth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the inspectors of the state prison shall be entitled to receive the annual salaries and pay heretofore mentioned, and no other compensation whatever; that is to say, each of the acting inspectors at the rate of three hundred dollars per annum; and each of the other members of the board of inspectors, at the rate of three hundred dollars per annum; all of which salaries shall be paid in the manner now provided by the laws of this state.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be retrospective so far as relates to those inspectors of the state prison, who have received no compensation for their services, since the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Approved March 24, 1874.

5. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 25, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXVIII.

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Lincoln Library of Jersey City," approved March twenty-one, eighteen hundred and seventy-three.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the above entitled act be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 21, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXIX.

A further supplement to the act entitled "An act concerning inns and taverns," approved April seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That none of the provisions of the thirteenth section of the act entitled "An act concerning inns and taverns," approved April seventeenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, or of the act entitled "A supplement to an act concerning inns and taverns," approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, which supplement was approved March eighth, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, or of an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act concerning inns and taverns,'" approved February twentieth, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, shall hereafter apply to offences committed in any of the incorporated cities of this state, the ordinance of which provide for the punishment of the unlicensed sale of spirituous liquors, and for the punishment of the sale of spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or intoxicating liquors on Sunday.

2. And be it enacted, That where the ordinance of any incorporated city of this state shall provide for the offence of keeping a disorderly house, it shall not hereafter be lawful to prosecute by indictment any person accused of keeping a disorderly house in such city, where the alleged offence consists only of the continuous or frequent violation of the provisions of the acts mentioned in the first section of this act, or any of them, but any person so offending shall be prosecuted and punished only under and by virtue of the provisions of such ordinances.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXX.

A supplement to an act entitled "An act to incorporate trustees of religious societies," approved April seventeenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the act entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act to incorporate trustees of religious societies,'" which act was approved February seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, be so far amended as to empower, during a vacancy in the office of Bishop and Vicar General, the administrator of the Diocese for the time being, to exercise and discharge such powers and duties as are authorized by said act to be performed by said Bishop and Vicar General.

2. And be it further enacted, That in order to make valid and effectual in law, the proceedings, orders and acts of such corporations as are created by virtue of said act, it shall be necessary that the same shall receive the sanction of the Bishop, or in the absence of the Bishop, of the Vicar General, or in case of a vacancy in these offices, of the administrator of the diocese for the time being.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXXI.

A further supplement to "An act to open public roads to and from railroad depots," approved April fourth, eighteen hundred and seventy-three.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in townships where there are no road commissioners, and any road or roads of said townships are laid out by the freeholders of the county, the said freeholders shall give notice in writing to the overseers in said township nearest where said road or roads are or have been, or hereafter shall be so laid out, to open the same at once to accommodate the public; and the township committee, or said township where said road is laid out, shall order assessors of said township to be taken for said road, over and above the benefits derived, and all other expenses of opening and improving said road or roads upon the assessed property in the township, and it shall be collected in the same manner, and at the same time as other taxes are collected, and paid to the parties so damaged by said township committee.

2. And be it enacted, That if the overseer or overseers of any roads so notified as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse for the space of twenty days after receiving the notice to be given as aforesaid by said freeholders to said overseer or overseers of roads, to open the aforesaid roads, the same overseer or overseers shall be liable to indictment for such neglect or refusal as for a misdemeanor.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXXII.

A further supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide additional accommodations for the insane of this state," approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

Whereas, it is very desirable that the asylum building now being erected near Morrisville, shall be completed and ready for use as early a day as practicable; and whereas it is represented that a further sum than heretofore appropriated can be judiciously and economically expended this season for the purpose; therefore—

1. As it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the state of New Jersey, That in order to enable the commissioners appointed under said original act to continue the erection of said asylum building, and to discharge the trust committed to them; the sum of two hundred thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated to be paid by the treasurer of the state on the warrant of the comptroller, which shall be drawn on the requisition of the said commissioners.

2. And be it enacted, that the number of commissioners to select a site and build said asylum be increased to seven; and that the additional commissioners hereby authorized to be appointed shall be elected by the senate and general assembly in joint meeting assembled.

3. And be it enacted that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXXIII.

A further supplement to the act entitled "An act appointing commissioners for a sinking fund, and defining their duties," approved March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of New Jersey," be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to bid for and purchase any lands and premises exposed to sale under the order or decree of any court for the payment and satisfaction of any mortgage encumbrance thereon held by the said commissioners, and to take and hold the title to the lands and premises so purchased in and by their official name, style and title, and as part of the assets of the sinking fund of New Jersey; provided however, that the said commissioners shall in no case bid a higher price for such lands than shall be sufficient to save the amount due upon their said mortgage encumbrance and costs.

2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners be and they are hereby empowered and directed to sell and convey to any purchaser, any lands and premises acquired under the provisions of this act, at such times, for such prices, and on such terms of payment as the governor of this state, for the time being, shall, by writing, under his hand and seal, and the consideration received therefor, shall be assets of the sinking fund.

3. And be it enacted, That the governor of this state, for the time being, be and he is hereby empowered and directed to sell to any purchaser, any lands and premises heretofore struck off and conveyed to the state of New Jersey, at heretofore held by the said commissioners of the sinking fund, and to execute in the name of the state of New Jersey, and acknowledge and deliver to such purchaser, a good and sufficient deed therefor, in fee provided, that the price and terms of payment therefor shall be approved in writing by said commissioners, and that the whole purchase money or executed and delivered to the said commissioners, and shall be assets and securities of the sinking fund.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXXIV.

An act for an appropriation for the support and maintenance of the Soldiers' Children's Home.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in addition to the appropriation for the support of the Soldiers' Children's Home, directed by the act approved April first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, the sum of two thousand dollars be hereby appropriated for the object designated by the title of this act, to be expended under the direction of the managers of said home, and the treasurer of the state is hereby directed to pay to the treasurer of the said Children's Home, on the warrant of the comptroller, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the said sum of money for the purposes aforesaid.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXXV.

An act to prevent the defacement of natural scenery.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any person who shall paint or print upon or in any manner place upon or affix to any of the steep rocks called the Palisades, on the Hudson river, in this state, any word, letter, character or device, stating, referring to or advertising the sale or manufacture of any property or article, profession, business, exhibition, amusement or place of amusement or other thing; and any person who shall directly or indirectly cause such act to be done, or shall aid therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall for each and every such offence, be punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both, such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court in which such offence shall be tried.

2. And be it enacted, That without the previous consent of the owner, all persons are hereafter prohibited from advertising their wares or occupations, by painting notices of the same on fences or other private property, or upon cliffs or rocks, or other natural objects.

3. And be it enacted, That all persons violating the provisions of the second section of this act shall be punished by a fine of ten dollars for each offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace; the action to be brought in debt in the corporate name of the township, borough or city wherein such offence shall be committed, one half of which said fine shall be for the use of the informer or prosecutor of such action, the other half to the overseer of the poor of the township, borough or city in which such offence shall have been committed.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

CHAPTER CCCCXXVI.

Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the organization of the National Guard of the State of New Jersey," approved March thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement shall be and the same is hereby amended by inserting after the words "one chaplain, to rank as captain," the words "one judge advocate, to rank as captain."

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 26, 1874.

HOMES TO WHOM HOMES ARE DUE.—These things are common and pleasant and worthy of honor from the beholder. A young saint, an old martyr, a religious soldier, a conscientious statesman, a great courtier, a learned man, a humble child that understands the eye of its parents, a cheerful companion without vanity, a friend not changed with honors, a sick man happy, a soul departing with composure and assurance.—Bishop Hall.

The Saturday Gazette.
BLOOMFIELD AND MONTCLAIR.
BELLEVILLE, CALDWELL AND VERONA.

An independent weekly journal of LIT-ERATURE, EDUCATION, POLITICS, GENERAL
NEWS, AND LOCAL INTERESTS.
All public and local questions, including political and social, sanitary and reform tory, educational and industrial topics will be clearly presented and fully and fairly discussed.

It is intended and expected to make it not only readable and interesting to the general reader, but of special value to citizens of the county and of real importance to every resident of Bloomfield, Montclair,
Caldwell, Belleville and Verona.

Nothing will be admitted to its columns not unworthy of cordial welcome to every family circle.

Settled Clergymen in the county, and all Public School Teachers in the county will receive the paper gratuitously by sending their address.

To ADVERTISERS it should prove a valuable medium. Our circulation extends to every part of Essex county, and considerably elsewhere.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND ADVERTISEMENTS will be received and forwarded by the Postmaster, also at our office in Bloomfield, or may be addressed by mail, to Wm. F.
